A reading from Deuteronomy

All Services

[Moses said to the people:] ¹⁵See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity. ¹⁶If you obey the commandments of the LORD your God that I am commanding you today, by loving the LORD your God, walking in his ways, and observing his commandments, decrees, and ordinances, then you shall live and become numerous, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to possess. ¹⁷But if your heart turns away and you do not hear, but are led astray to bow down to other gods and serve them, ¹⁸I declare to you today that you shall perish; you shall not live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess. ¹⁹I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live, ²⁰loving the LORD your God, obeying him, and holding fast to him; for that means life to you and length of days, so that you may live in the land that the LORD swore to give to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

The word of the Lord.

READING: Psalm 119

Early Service Only

“We will read the Psalm responsively.”

L: ¹Happy are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the LORD.

C: ²Happy are those who keep his decrees, who seek him with their whole heart,

L: ³who also do no wrong, but walk in his ways.

C: ⁴You have commanded your precepts to be kept diligently.

L: ⁵O that my ways may be steadfast in keeping your statutes!

C: ⁶Then I shall not be put to shame, having my eyes fixed on all your commandments.

L: ⁷I will praise you with an upright heart, when I learn your righteous ordinances.

C: ⁸I will observe your statutes; do not utterly forsake me.
