

Salem Celebrating 135 Years: God's Love Endures

We are pleased to announce that Salem's interim location for worship is the Central Baptist Theological Seminary in Shawnee. Beginning Sunday, September 6, we will have our traditional worship with organ at 8:00am, and our contemporary worship with praise band at 9:30am in the seminary's beautiful Baugh-Marshall chapel, located at 6601 Monticello Rd in Shawnee. Vance Thomas works in the seminary's library next to the chapel, in which we will hold future Sunday school classes.

We will have an outdoor combined worship and celebration on Sunday, August 30 at 9:00am in the spacious grassy lot outside of Koinonia. After sharing stories and blessing the buildings that have sheltered our congregation in Lenexa, we will have an open house at the seminary 11:00am-12:30pm for all who wish to see our new interim worship space. Please join us as we thank God for 135 years of Salem's history, and look forward to our future with much hope and joy!
